The 1983 resolution establishing the Bethlehem Lutheran Memorial and Endowment Fund states that:

4. The income from said Fund shall be expended by the Board for only Christian purposes, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. Special ministries in Christian education with the Congregation and to other Lutheran Congregations*
- b. For the support of the programs of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America*
- c. For other such purposes consistent with the ecumenical work of the whole Christian Church*

5. No funds shall be expended for normal budgeted operating expenses of the church
